SECTION II—2nd Generation

A-2 JOHN BRANCH

A-2 JOHN NUTTING (John), born Aug. 25, 1651, at Woburn (?), Mass.; died at Groton shortly after Dec. 2, 1731; married Dec. 11, 1674, Mary Lakin, daughter of William Lakin of Groton.

John Nutting Jr. was a husbandman or farmer. He occupied his father's lands in Groton, not later than 1693, and probably before. These lands were confirmed to him and his brother James by action of the Probate Court for Middlesex County. That his wife was Mary Lakin is proved by the settlement of William Lakin's estate, wherein John Nutting in 1707 is given as one of the children and heirs. Her surname is omitted from her marriage record. There is no record of the births of the children of John Jr. and Mary (Lakin) Nutting and their names are gathered from Middlesex Deeds and other records or considerations.

Children, Third Generation

A3-1 i John, b. about 1678.

ii Abigail, b. about 1680; married Aug. 16, 1699, Thomas Chamberlain of Concord.

iii Lydia, b. about 1682; married Feb. 26, 1713-14, Gershom Hobart of Groton.

A3-2 iv Richard, b. about 1684; married Miriam Gray and lived at Andover, Mass. Some think he was not the son of John. There is no evidence either way.

A3-3 v Ebenezer, b. Nov. 20, 1686.

A3-4 vi Jonathan, b. July 7, 1689.

A3-5 vii Daniel, b. about 1691.

A3-6 ix Eleazer, b. about 1698.

B-2 JAMES BRANCH, 2nd Generation

B-2 JAMES NUTTING (John), born June 30, 1653, probably at Woburn, perhaps at Chelmsford; died at Groton in 1732; married May 15, 1672, Lydia Longley, daughter of William and Joanna (Goffe) Longley.

James Nutting was a husbandman or farmer and returned to Groton at the resettlement, probably having one half of his father's land. Record evidence in land and probate records proves that his wife was daughter of William iii Sarah, b. Aug. 11, 1698; died Dec. 18, 1759 at Medford; probably unmarried.

C3-2 iv Ebenezer, b. Aug. 9, 1700; m. Mary ————.

C3-4 vi Josiah, b. Feb. 28, 1705-6.

C3-5 vii John, b. April 23, 1709; married twice.

C3-6 viii Benjamin, b. Sept. 7, 1711; married Ruth Wood.

ix Mary, b. March, 1714; perhaps the Mary Nutting who married Sept. 2, 1729 Stephen Murrell (Boston records).

D-2 JONATHAN BRANCH, 2nd Generation

D-2 JONATHAN NUTTING (John) born Oct. 17, 1668, at Groton; died at Cambridge shortly before June 9, 1735; married Elizabeth ————, who survived him, living in 1741.

He learned his trade of gunsmith or locksmith of person or persons unknown. In 1691 he was married and lived at Rumney Marsh, now Chelsea, as shown by Suffolk County Court Records, when in August, 1691 he complained of two Frenchmen, Fontaign and John, for entering his house on Sunday, Aug. 9, 1691, and offering abuses to himself and family. In 1695 he bought house and land in Old Cambridge, situated at the northeast corner of Bow and Holyoke Sts., near Harvard College. Later he owned most of the square bounded by Dunster, Winthrop, Holyoke and South Sts., except the southeast corner. On July 18, 1697, he and his wife owned the covenant in the First Church, Cambridge, and had their children baptized there, but there is no evidence that they were ever members in full communion. His heirs sold his homestead in Cambridge, Feb. 10, 1746. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 46, p. 630 and 632). The dwelling house was then occupied by Mercy, widow of James Nutting, son of Jonathan.

genealogy, by John Nutting (Boston, 1866),
"Ebenezer's descendants were at Marblehead, Gloucester and Salem," which is partly verified by records.

CHILDREN, BAPTIZED AT MARBLEHEAD FIRST CHURCH, FOURTH GENERATION

C4-5 i Ebenezer, bapt. Sept. 1726; m. Hannah Diamond Marsh.
ii Mary, bapt. Nov. 23, 1729.
iii Rebecca, bapt. ————; m. June 25, 1754 Samuel Derby.
iv Lydia, bapt. Aug. 18, 1734; m. Oct. 4, 1756 John Pepperell.
v Sarah, bapt. Sept. 18, 1737; d. young.
C4-6 vi Benjamin, bapt. March 11, 1738-9; m. Elizabeth Trefry.
vii Sarah, bapt. May 30, 1742; m. Dec. 25, 1766 John Stacy.
C4-7 viii Jonathan, bapt. April 21, 1745.
ix Elizabeth, bapt. June 11, 1749; m. April 6, 1776 Peter Quiner.

C3-3 JAMES NUTTING (Ebenezer, John), born Jan. 31, 1703-4 in Medford; living Aug. 30, 1770; married about 1728 Mary, who was living May 25, 1741.

He was a blacksmith by trade and moved about a great deal. From 1729 to 1732 he was at Concord, Mass., from 1734-5 he was at Hassanemesett later called Grafton; in 1736-1741 he was at Westford; he seems to have returned to Grafton in 1742, but was back in Westford in 1755 where he remained, unless he be the James Nutting of Pepperell whose estate was settled in 1796. This is the James Nutting whom John K. Nutting made a son of James (2) and Lydia (Longley) Nutting, born about 1701. This is not strange, considering that he appears in several places. It may have been the fact that he was only visiting Westford or present there temporarily when he executed some of his deeds, and that he resided in Concord 1729 to 1732 or 1733; Grafton 1735 to 1751; Westford after that. However I shall give his deeds in chronological order.

Jonathan Polley of Medford and Lydia his wife for myself and in behalf of James Nutting late of Medford, now resident in Groton, for £52 quit claims to Jonathan Nutting of Medford his rights in the estate of Ebenezer Nutting. Jan. 21, 1724-5. (Middlesex Deeds, vol. 23, p.506.)

James Nutting of Hassanemesett, Worcester County, husbandman, to John Fox, Jr., of Concord, land in the easterly part of Concord. Jan. 17, 1734-5. (Middlesex County Deeds.)

James Nutting of Grafton, Worcester County, blacksmith, and Mary his wife conveyed land to Ebenezer Stone of Westford. April 10, 1731, perhaps 1751. Lydia Nutting, probably mother of James, a witness. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 73, p.236.)

Thomas Read of Westford, gent., for £240 paid by James Nutting of Concord, blacksmith, conveyed to him 30 acres of land in Westford. June 5, 1736. (Middlesex Deeds, vol. 39, p.560.) This had dwelling house and barn.

James Nutting of Westford, blacksmith, and Mary his wife for £135 paid by Elizabeth wife of Nathaniel Nutting of Groton, husbandman, conveyed to Nathaniel Nutting in trust for the said Elizabeth, and her heirs, 51 acres of land in Groton; also ten acres of meadow out of the northerly end, or part of the meadow lot formerly John Nutting's, deceased at Baddecock. Dec. 3, 1736. Witnesses William Green, Isaac Nutting. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 41, p.174.)

Query. Was Mary wife of James Nutting, Mary Paige, sister to Elizabeth Paige, wife of Nathaniel Nutting?

James Nutting of Westford, blacksmith, and Mary his wife to John Nutting of Chelsea, Suffolk County, husbandman, land in Westford. May 25, 1741. Witnesses William Farnsworth and Josiah Nutting. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 77, p.193.)

James Nutting of Westford, husbandman, conveys to John Nutting of Westford, tanner, one-half of the land and meadows, bounded on one side by the land of Josiah Nutting and now owned by John Nutting. Witnesses James Nutting, Jr., and Benjamin Nutting. Oct. 29, 1753. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 76, p.192, or perhaps vol. 77, p.192.) The last of the two preceding deeds was acknowledged by James Nutting Aug. 30, 1770, and both were recorded Aug. 18, 1776. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 77, p.193.)

John Nutting of Westford, gent., conveys to Jonathan Anthony of Medford a house and land in Medford, being the same which Nathaniel Pierce sold to one Sarah Nutting Nov. 21, 1754, with all the rights which James Nutting of Pepperell ever had in the property, John Nutting having purchased it from James Nutting on Dec. 10, 1762. Hannah Nutting a witness. Deed dated Nov. 1, 1774. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 77, p.94.)

Here we have a glimpse of Sarah Nutting, the unmarried daughter of Ebenezer and Lydia Nutting. She had a house of her own in Medford. On her death it went to her brothers, of whom John, the grantor, was one, and James of Pepperell was another. The witness, Hannah Nutting, is the wife of John Nutting, the grantor.

It would appear that this James Nutting resided in that part of Groton called Pepperell at a later time. If so, he lived to great age, ninety or more years.

Nov. 8, 1796, John Nutting and Ebenezer Nutting, surviving sons of James Nutting late of Pepperell, declined admininstration on his estate, and Nov. 12, 1796, Samuel Parker was appointed administrator. Bond $30,000.

aged 84 at Marblehead. (Marblehead records). This would put her birth in 1727, not a good agreement with the above. "Sarah Marsh daughter of Andrew deceased and Hannah, now Nutting, bpt. June 19, 1748" (Marblehead church record).

CHILDREN, FIFTH GENERATION

C5-13 i John, bpt. Jan. 8, 1748-9; m. Jane Crowninshield.
ii Alice, bpt. Sept. 2, 1753; m. Jan. 1772 Paul Sears.
iii Hannah, b. Nov. 8, 1754; m. Dec. 30, 1786 Nathan Frye of Andover; their son Daniel Frye, b. May 2, 1793 at Salem, was a seaman and was shot in an engagement in 1814. (Essex Institute Collections, vol. 6, p.210.)
C5-14 iv William, bpt. March 28, 1756; a Revolutionary soldier from Marblehead; marriage not found.
v Elizabeth, m. April 1776 Peter Quiner (?).

C4-6 BENJAMIN NUTTING (Ebenezer, Ebenezer, John), bapt. March 11, 1738-9 at Marblehead; d. ————; m. March 21, 1763 Elizabeth Trefry (Marblehead records). Lived at Marblehead.

CHILDREN, FIFTH GENERATION

C5-15 i Benjamin, bpt. April 1763 (sickly); d. young.
C5-16 ii Benjamin, bpt. Sept. 29, 1765.
iii Elizabeth, bpt. March 20, 1768; d. at Marblehead Nov. 8, 1848 aged 80 years, 8 mos. unmarried.

C4-7 JONATHAN NUTTING (Ebenezer, Ebenezer, John), bapt. April 21, 1745. Of him I have been able to learn nothing.

C4-8 JAMES NUTTING (James, Ebenezer, John), b. July 23, 1732 in Concord, Mass.; died ————; married ————.

I have been unable to learn anything of wife and family if they existed. He was living Oct. 29, 1753 at Westford. when he witnessed a deed. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 77, p.192.)

C4-9 JOHN NUTTING (James, Ebenezer, John), born about 1736; died May 25, 1816 aged 80 (gravestone at Pepperell); married Martha daughter of William Blood. Mrs. Martha Nutting, wife of Capt. John Nutting and only child of Mr. William and Mrs. Martha Blood, died July 26, 1780 in her 44th year (gravestone at Pepperell); married second Mrs. Elizabeth (Shedd) Gilson.

1816 80 1736

Rev. J. K. Nutting in his book, page 87, says that Capt. John Nutting was son of Josiah and was born at Malden, Mass. and that his father was of Norridgewock, Me. and that Josiah Senior and Josiah Junior returned from Me. and settled in Pepperell. If this is not purely guess work, it is entirely mistaken. No fact or truth behind.

His second wife Elizabeth, b. Sept. 1, 1733 was a daughter of John and Elizabeth (Shattuck) Shedd of Groton and widow of Samuel Gilson (Shedd Genealogy, p.74.)

This John Nutting was Capt. of the militia of Pepperell and led them to Lexington and Bunker Hill in 1775. His will dated Jan. 9, 1814, proved Sept. 7, 1816, mentions his wife Elizabeth and all the children below. They also inherited all the real estate of their grandfather, William Blood.

CHILDREN, FIFTH GENERATION

i Mary, b. Jan. 15, 1758; d. Jan. 18, 1758.

C5-17 ii John, b. Feb. 11, 1759; m. ~~Martha Blood~~; lived at Pepperell, farmer; was living in 1801, but dead when his father made his will, probably not long before.

iii Martha, b. March 8, 1761; m. Joseph Farrar.

iv Eunice, b. July 13, 1763; living at Pepperell 1801, unmarried.

v Sarah, b. Sept. 20, 1765; married Noah Wright.

vi Mary, b. March 27, 1768; married Samuel Farrar.

C5-18 vii Levi, b. June 26, 1770; living at Pepperell 1796-1801, unmar.

viii Lydia, b. July 22, 1772; single in 1796; in 1801 was Lydia Barnes of Temple, N. H .

C5-19 xi William, b. Dec. 24, 1774; not mentioned in his father's will; not living in 1796. J. K. Nutting says he settled at Salem, Mass. which is wholly wrong. William Nutting of Salem was another man. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 149, p.213) is important for his family. It gives all that were living March 25, 1796, when they conveyed to Levi Nutting all their rights in the estate of their grandfather William Blood. Levi was the only son who survived his father.

C4-10 BENJAMIN NUTTING (James, Ebenezer, John), born ———, perhaps 1730, and so older than brothers John and Ebenezer, but more probably born about 1740; died about May 1821; married Nov. 4, 1766, Sarah, daughter of Jonas and Lydia Varnum.

Benjamin Nutting lived in Pepperell; was yeoman, husbandman and farmer. His will, dated March 12, 1813, proved Oct. 16, 1821, mentions no children, but mentions Abigail Dickson, unmarried, Benjamin Nutting Fiske and Walter Fiske, now living in my family. These may be been grandchildren. Samuel Nutting and others are cited to appear at the probate of the will. Who Samuel was, I am not sure. May have been brother of Benjamin Nutting.

C4-11 EBENEZER NUTTING (James, Ebenezer, John), b. July 17, 1742 at Grafton, Mass.; died ————; married Jan. 31, 1765 Sybil Stickney (marriage recorded at Harvard, Mass.)

March 1766, Groton caution against Sybil Nutting the wife of Ebenezer Nutting who came last from Harvard allowed.

P.S. I have been urged by my friends all summer long to visit Columbus and a mine boasting the prevalence of cholera has caused them to forbid such a step. I have also received numerous applications from Robertson Clarke Saunders but have thought it best to decline all, and stay for the present at Ravenna.

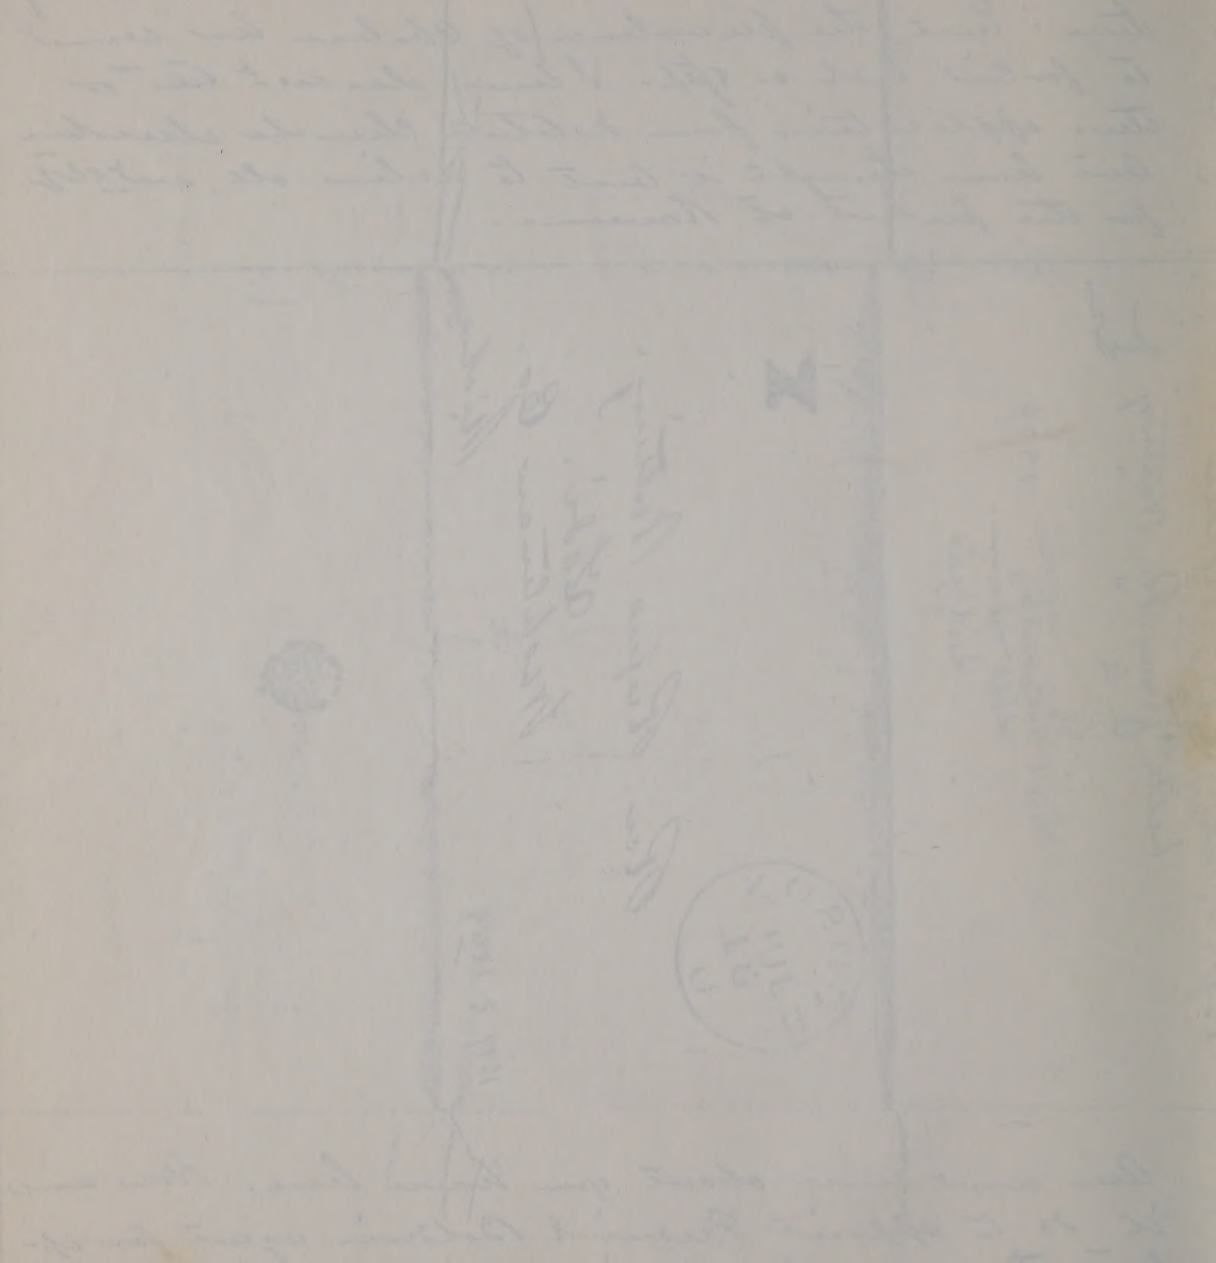
One word more about your Kansas line. How would it do to appoint Frederick Baldwin agent for effecting the sale of it? He is extensively acquainted in the county & is used to bargaining & all sorts. It might also be advertised for sale in some of the cities. The cholera might make some wealthy men anxious to remove into the country. R. R.



Hudson, July 31st, 1849.

My Dear Parents.

I have been desiring to write you in order if possible to speak more definitely of a variety of subjects than I have hitherto been able to. I learned much about your circumstances, cares, prospects &c from Aunt Chamberlain, & Emily, and judging from the interest with which I listened to their accounts of "home," you have undoubtedly been anxious to know the situation and probable destiny of your oldest son.

For four or six weeks past I have been preaching at Ravenna and have now made an engagement for six months, with the understanding that when the Society holds its annual meeting in January next, arrangements may be made for something more permanent. Have pretty much concluded upon a boarding place, and that for more than one. Can have a very pleasant set of rooms at Esq. Hall's. Who used to be one of your neighbors at Hudson. As to particulars respecting my location, I can give the light and dark shades of the picture when I see you, which will be soon if life & health are spared.

That reminds me to say that we mark pass today & design to set out for Detroit, and our wedding will probably occur within about two weeks from that time. You shall have due notice of the day as soon as it has been determined on, and that without fail, for I want as many of the family to attend as can make it convenient. Marquette has frequently expressed the same wish, and doubtless all will be invited. Should anything occur to detain any considerable portion of our family at Lodi, we shall expect to visit you, and may take a trip out, any how.

Dr Clark and his wife, & Comelia inquire for you with much interest; I took tea there on Sunday evening last, Charles is visiting them from N. York. He has arisen at the dignity of head clerk in an importing house there & is as fat & fashionable as a little alderman.

Henry Swift is also at home; has left his business in Buffalo for the present on account of Cholera.

As to the house here, I have consulted Mr Frederick Baldwin, & Judge Humphrey, respectively as to it cash value. They are considered the best judges of real estate in town, and both say the same thing in regard to your place. Each one says he would not sell the place short of two thousand dollars, and that it would nominally rate as high as three by four hundred. This is more than you suppose it will bring. If I were in your place I would not pretend to ask less than sixteen hundred for it. Four hundred dollars off, from the estimate of good judges is enough I am sure. If anything can be done by way of advertising &c, I can perhaps attend to it when I return, or perhaps uncle C. will attend to it. He is quite absorbed for the present in the farming. Judge Humphrey had a good story to tell of your fifing & his drumming in the village one muster day long ago, over which we had a good hearty laugh.

I hope my Rochester will recruit all they can this vacation. I want to see her look less care worn than she has done for a long time past, & when I have a home of my own, I shall insist on some two visits from her, or more or others of the family. — I could write more if I had time. This is my fifth letter written this hours. Much love to Mamma & Willie. Uncle folks well. Love from us, Brief.

If you wish to communicate anything to me, please address as before. Letter would not return till after I leave.

Hudson Ohio, Sept. 14th 1852.

My Dear Father,

After finishing the letter I sent you from Cleveland, Mary & I walk up into the city. We followed up St Clair street until we came to Mr. Rickards's, where I boarded last winter. We called there a few minutes, and they seemed glad to see us. We then walked on until we came to the Medical Callige. We then turned down Erie street until, having stopped to see the Cathedral &c, we came to the Cemetery. We walked about in that sometime. Then we walked down Prospect until we came to Ontario, then down Ontario, passing Mr Fissel's, till we came to Superior. Then down that, stopping in at Brainard's Music store to purchase a piece of sheet music, called "Little Eva, uncle Tom's Guardian Angel" for Eliza Ann. We then turned down Bank St by the Weddel House, stopping at the P. O. to mail the letter. Then down Lake & Bath streets till we came to the depot. We left the Depot in the cars at 6 P.M. and did not arrive at Hudson till about 8. It was then raining. Mary and I walked immediately to Brother's house. We found the front gate fastened and no lights in the house. I found Mr. Beaton in the shop, and he informed us that Rufus & Sarah too, had gone East. Of course we were disappointed, and hardly knew what to do. I left Mary in the shop while I tried to find a carriage to take her down to uncle's. After much running I did not succeed in getting one. Mary thought she could walk down; but I thought it would not be prudent for her to undertake it. So I told her we would find our way into the house and make ourselves as comfortable and contented as we could till the morrow, when I expected uncle's folks would come down to meeting, and we could go back with them. We did so. We had a good night's rest. We took breakfast with the family who occupy R's old shop. Mary did not attend meeting in the A.M. as it was quite rainy & muddy, but I did. At noon she rode down to uncle's with the folks. It cleared off quite cold towards night. Monday morning the mercury was down to 40. I was down to R's from 9 A.M. till supper, yesterday, visiting &c. When I came home I found Mary had vomited up her dinner and had felt quite sick all the afternoon. She had got her stomach out of order, & her bowels, by unsuitable diet, eating green fruit, drinking ice water, &c., and had checked the insensible perspiration by getting chilly,

(She was perspiring quite freely when she entered the cemetery at C. Saturday, and it was so shady there ~~that~~, that the surface was suddenly chilled, the pores of the skin closed & contracted &c.) and thus she became unwell. She was a little feverish, and had pain in her back &c. I advised her to have her back washed and rubbed, and a wet cloth tied to it, a jug of hot water with a wet cloth around that to be placed at her feet, and gave her a teaspoonful of tincture of rhubarb. So it was done, and aunt gave her some ginger tea. She is much better this morning, and has eaten some boiled rice. She just asked me what I was writing and I told her. She says I ought not to have written it, for it might make you feel anxious for nothing, because she thought she should be about as well as before by the time I finished this sheet. I told her I thought it best to state facts as they were, and that by so doing I thought you would not feel as anxious as you would, did you fear I kept back part of the truth, or knew that I was in the habit, in such circumstances, of so doing.

We have been looking over my account of our expenses, and find that they amount to about $4. apiece more than mine were home.

That ~~was~~ is about $17.00. They were increased by our being delayed on the way, about 2 dollars.

I will give you a list of Mary's.

Fare from W. Randolph to Burlington	$2.20
Supper at "	37½
" " Burlington to Schenectady	3.00
" " Schenectady to Buffalo	6.20
Paid for transporting baggage to Boat	12½
" " " Self " ~~to Hotel~~	12½
" " one day's board at Hotel	1.00
" " ride from Hotel to boat	12½
" " Passage in steamboat from B. to C.	3.00
" " Ticket from C. to Hudson	75
" " transferring trunks from boat to cars	12½
Total	$17.01½

I bought apples, cakes, water & C, on the way to perhaps the amount of 25 cts. I took a deck passage on Lake Erie which saved me $1.50. The boat had over 1000 passengers on board, and I could not have had a room or berth if I had taken a cabin passage, but should have had to sleep on a mattress on the cabin floor. As it was I found out where Mary's berth was, in the Ladies' Cabin, and found that a window opened from it out upon the lower deck. I took my station near it, so that if any accident should happen I could notify her.

Mary says she thinks she will wait a few days before she writes. She has some Graham bread now which Aunt has been baking for her this morning, and will soon get well.

Aunt sends her love, and says — "Tell your Father, we are very glad to have his children with us." All as well as usual. Aunt wishes, as soon as Sarah gets to Randolph, to have her write, to inform when she expects to get home; and also whether she can come home via Meriden or Worthington Conn., and let Miss Mary Ann Blakeslee return with them. Miss B. has been sick there. If she can she can write to Miss B. the Hartford & N. Haven R.R. runs through one of those towns. — Willie is happy & smart. Mary sends love.

The cholera is prevailing considerably we hear in Cleveland. This week the state fare is to be holden there. 15 car loads went down yesterday. Mr Beaton took an instrument he has been making for the fair — lady of his, went down to C. yesterday to show to both fairs. The synod of Western Reserve meets this week here.

We shall write often and hope you will.

Your affectionate son
David H. Nutting

SECTION III—3rd Generation

A-3 JOHN BRANCH

A3-1 JOHN NUTTING (John, John), born about 1678; died in Groton in 1778 to 1780; said to have been a centenarian; married Jan. 3, 1706-7, Mrs. Mary (Wood) Parker, born Aug. 2, 1670, daughter of Samuel Wood and widow of Eleazer Parker. The date of her death is not found.

This John Nutting was a husbandman or farmer; lived in Groton. He retained his faculties until the last year of his life, when with the assistance of his grand-nephew, William Nutting of Groton, he wrote the manuscript genealogy of the Nutting family as he knew it, often referred to and used by Rev. J. K. Nutting, not always with accuracy. He left no will; names of his sons are from deeds of gift. He may have had a wife before Mary.

Children, Fourth Generation

A4-1 i John, b. 1702 (?); m. Mary Spaulding.

A4-2 ii Ephraim, b. 1704 (?); m. Lydia Spaulding.

A4-3 iii Nathaniel, b. about Nov. 1706; m. Elizabeth Paige.

A4-4 iv Josiah, b. about 1712; m. Mary Blood.

A4-5 v Isaac, b. about 1714; m. Lydia Nutting.

Perhaps others. The earliest church records now extant for Groton begin in 1706.

A3-2 RICHARD NUTTING (John, John), born 1680 or later; died before Dec. 27, 1737; married June 17, 1718, Mrs. Miriam (Lovejoy) Gray, born in Andover, Mass., Aug. 11, 1686; died at Andover, April, 1770; daughter of Christopher and Sarah (Russ) Lovejoy of Andover and widow of Robert Gray.

There is no positive evidence that Richard Nutting of Andover was of the third generation of Nuttings. If he was descendant of the first John Nutting of Groton, it seems necessary to place him here, but his parentage must remain a matter of doubt. His widow, Mrs. Miriam Nutting, in will proved May 8, 1770, mentions her children by both husbands and many grandchildren.

Only Nutting Child, Fourth Generation

A4-6 i Joseph, b. April 1, 1719; m. Mary Abraham.

A3-3 EBENEZER NUTTING (John, John), born Nov. 20, 1686; living Jan. 22, 1762; married Dec. (? March) 13, 1710-11, Ruth Shattuck, born Oct. 1694; living June 13, 1747; daughter of William Shattuck.

Ebenezer was a farmer and lived at Groton, Mass. The last mention of him that has been found is a deed from him to Robert Parker of Groton, dated Jan. 22, 1762. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 59, p. 341.)

CHILDREN, FOURTH GENERATION

A4-7 i James, b. April 10, 1713.
ii Ruth, b. May 12, 1715.
iii Abigail, b. Feb. 8, 1717-8; m. Sept. 16, 1741, Isaac Phillips (?).
A4-8 iv Ebenezer, b. Nov. 24, 1719.
v Lydia, b. April 28, 1721; probably m. Isaac Nutting.
A4-9 vi David, b. Aug. 20, 1724; m. Rachel Lakin.
A4-10 vii Jacob, b. Feb. 9, 1727-8; died unmarried or childless.
A4-11 viii Benjamin, b. Dec. 30, 1730.
A4-12 ix Aaron, bapt. Sept. 1, 1734.
x Phebe, b. May 28, 1737; had a daughter Lydia, b. Feb. 21, 1769; she accused John Larkin.

A3-4 JONATHAN NUTTING (John, John), born July 7, 1689, at Groton; died there before May 19, 1740; married June 1, 1710, at Charlestown, Mass., by justice Emerson. Mary Green, b. Nov. 30, 1690; died at Groton, Sept. 24, 1778 daughter of John and Mary Green. She married second Josiah Farnsworth of Groton, b. Feb. 24, 1687.

This Jonathan Nutting was a "cordwainer," that is, shoe maker, tanner and leather worker. His wife was admitted to full communion in the church at Groton, April 28, 1728, and he was admitted, June 23, 1728. His land on both sides of the road from Groton to Dunstable was inventoried at £450. His account book was in the possession of Rev. J. K. Nutting, who gives a fac simile in his book. One entry is worth noting:

Jan. the 1, 1725
Tyng and Whit (comb)
Came from buring
Capt. John Lovel and his men at pigwoket
Daniel Woods
Thomas Woods
John Teft.

Capt. John Lovell was ambushed and slain by Indians near Fryeburg, Me. Widow Mary Nutting was appointed administratrix on estate of her husband, Jonathan Nutting, May 19, 1740. He left no will.

iii Mary, b. Nov. 19, 1718; married Nathaniel Blodgett of Groton.

genealogy, by John Nutting (John, John), already referred to, says that "Ebenezer's descendants were at Marblehead, Gloucester and Salem," which is partly verified by records.

C3-3 JAMES NUTTING (Ebenezer, John), born Jan. 31, 1703-4 in Medford; living Aug. 30, 1770; married about 1728 Mary, who was living May 25, 1741.

He was a blacksmith by trade and moved about a great deal. From 1729 to 1732 he was at Concord, Mass., from 1734-5 he was at Hassanemesett later called Grafton; in 1736-1741 he was at Westford; he seems to have returned to Grafton in 1742, but was back in Westford in 1755 where he remained, unless he be the James Nutting of Pepperell whose estate was settled in 1796. This is the James Nutting whom John K. Nutting made a son of James (2) and Lydia (Longley) Nutting, born about 1701. This is not strange, considering that he appears in several places. It may have been the fact that he was only visiting Westford or present there temporarily when he executed some of his deeds, and that he resided in Concord 1729 to 1732 or 1733; Grafton 1735 to 1751; Westford after that. However I shall give his deeds in chronological order.

Jonathan Polley of Medford and Lydia his wife for myself and in behalf of James Nutting late of Medford, now resident in Groton, for £52 quit claims to Jonathan Nutting of Medford his rights in the estate of Ebenezer Nutting. Jan. 21, 1724-5. (Middlesex Deeds, vol. 23, p.506.)

James Nutting of Hassanemesett, Worcester County, husbandman, to John Fox, Jr., of Concord, land in the easterly part of Concord. Jan. 17, 1734-5. (Middlesex County Deeds.)

James Nutting of Grafton, Worcester County, blacksmith, and Mary his wife conveyed land to Ebenezer Stone of Westford. April 10, 1731, perhaps 1751. Lydia Nutting, probably mother of James, a witness. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 73, p.236.)

Thomas Read of Westford, gent., for £240 paid by James Nutting of Concord, blacksmith, conveyed to him 30 acres of land in Westford. June 5, 1736. (Middlesex Deeds, vol. 39, p.560.) This had dwelling house and barn.

James Nutting of Westford, blacksmith, and Mary his wife for £135 paid by Elizabeth wife of Nathaniel Nutting of Groton, husbandman, conveyed to Nathaniel Nutting in trust for the said Elizabeth, and her heirs, 51 acres of land in Groton; also ten acres of meadow out of the northerly end, or part of the meadow lot formerly John Nutting's, deceased at Baddecock. Dec. 3, 1736. Witnesses William Green, Isaac Nutting. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 41, p.174.)

Query. Was Mary wife of James Nutting, Mary Paige, sister to Elizabeth Paige, wife of Nathaniel Nutting?

James Nutting of Westford, blacksmith, and Mary his wife to John Nutting of Chelsea, Suffolk County, husbandman, land in Westford. May 25, 1741. Witnesses William Farnsworth and Josiah Nutting. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 77, p.193.)

James Nutting of Westford, husbandman, conveys to John Nutting of Westford, tanner, one-half of the land and meadows, bounded on one side by the land of Josiah Nutting and now owned by John Nutting. Witnesses James Nutting, Jr., and Benjamin Nutting. Oct. 29, 1753. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 76, p.192, or perhaps vol. 77, p.192.) The last of the two preceding deeds was acknowledged by James Nutting Aug. 30, 1770, and both were recorded Aug. 18, 1776. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 77, p.193.)

John Nutting of Westford, gent., conveys to Jonathan Anthony of Medford a house and land in Medford, being the same which Nathaniel Pierce sold to one Sarah Nutting Nov. 21, 1754, with all the rights which James Nutting of Pepperell ever had in the property, John Nutting having purchased it from James Nutting on Dec. 10, 1762. Hannah Nutting a witness. Deed dated Nov. 1, 1774. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 77, p.94.)

Here we have a glimpse of Sarah Nutting, the unmarried daughter of Ebenezer and Lydia Nutting. She had a house of her own in Medford. On her death it went to her brothers, of whom John, the grantor, was one, and James of Pepperell was another. The witness, Hannah Nutting, is the wife of John Nutting, the grantor.

It would appear that this James Nutting resided in that part of Groton called Pepperell at a later time. If so, he lived to great age, ninety or more years.

Nov. 8, 1796, John Nutting and Ebenezer Nutting, surviving sons of James Nutting late of Pepperell, declined admininstration on his estate, and Nov. 12, 1796, Samuel Parker was appointed administrator. Bond $30,000.

aged 84 at Marblehead. (Marblehead records). This would put her birth in 1727, not a good agreement with the above. "Sarah Marsh daughter of Andrew deceased and Hannah, now Nutting, bpt. June 19, 1748" (Marblehead church record).

CHILDREN, FIFTH GENERATION

C5-13 i John, bpt. Jan. 8, 1748-9; m. Jane Crowninshield.
ii Alice, bpt. Sept. 2, 1753; m. Jan. 1772 Paul Sears.
iii Hannah, b. Nov. 8, 1754; m. Dec. 30, 1786 Nathan Frye of Andover; their son Daniel Frye, b. May 2, 1793 at Salem, was a seaman and was shot in an engagement in 1814. (Essex Institute Collections, vol. 6, p.210.)
C5-14 iv William, bpt. March 28, 1756; a Revolutionary soldier from Marblehead; marriage not found.
v Elizabeth, m. April 1776 Peter Quiner (?).

C4-6 BENJAMIN NUTTING (Ebenezer, Ebenezer, John), bapt. March 11, 1738-9 at Marblehead; d. ————; m. March 21, 1763 Elizabeth Trefry (Marblehead records). Lived at Marblehead.

CHILDREN, FIFTH GENERATION

C5-15 i Benjamin, bpt. April 1763 (sickly); d. young.
C5-16 ii Benjamin, bpt. Sept. 29, 1765.
iii Elizabeth, bpt. March 20, 1768; d. at Marblehead Nov. 8, 1848 aged 80 years, 8 mos. unmarried.

C4-7 JONATHAN NUTTING (Ebenezer, Ebenezer, John), bapt. April 21, 1745. Of him I have been able to learn nothing.

C4-8 JAMES NUTTING (James, Ebenezer, John), b. July 23, 1732 in Concord, Mass.; died ————; married ————.

I have been unable to learn anything of wife and family if they existed. He was living Oct. 29, 1753 at Westford. when he witnessed a deed. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 77, p.192.)

C4-9 JOHN NUTTING (James, Ebenezer, John), born about 1736; died May 25, 1816 aged 80 (gravestone at Pepperell); married Martha daughter of William Blood. Mrs. Martha Nutting, wife of Capt. John Nutting and only child of Mr. William and Mrs. Martha Blood, died July 26, 1780 in her 44th year (gravestone at Pepperell); married second Mrs. Elizabeth (Shedd) Gilson.

Rev. J. K. Nutting in his book, page 87, says that Capt. John Nutting was son of Josiah and was born at Malden, Mass. and that his father was of Norridgewock, Me. and that Josiah Senior and Josiah Junior returned from Me. and settled in Pepperell. If this is not purely guess work, it is entirely mistaken. No fact or truth behind.

His second wife Elizabeth, b. Sept. 1, 1733 was a daughter of John and Elizabeth (Shattuck) Shedd of Groton and widow of Samuel Gilson (Shedd Genealogy, p.74.)

This John Nutting was Capt. of the militia of Pepperell and led them to Lexington and Bunker Hill in 1775. His will dated Jan. 9, 1814, proved Sept. 7, 1816, mentions his wife Elizabeth and all the children below. They also inherited all the real estate of their grandfather, William Blood.

CHILDREN, FIFTH GENERATION

i Mary, b. Jan. 15, 1758; d. Jan. 18, 1758.

C5-17 ii John, b. Feb. 11, 1759; m. ~~Martha Blood~~; lived at Pepperell, farmer; was living in 1801, but dead when his father made his will, probably not long before.

iii Martha, b. March 8, 1761; m. Joseph Farrar.

iv Eunice, b. July 13, 1763; living at Pepperell 1801, unmarried.

v Sarah, b. Sept. 20, 1765; married Noah Wright.

vi Mary, b. March 27, 1768; married Samuel Farrar.

C5-18 vii Levi, b. June 26, 1770; living at Pepperell 1796-1801, unmar.

viii Lydia, b. July 22, 1772; single in 1796; in 1801 was Lydia Barnes of Temple, N. H .

C5-19 xi William, b. Dec. 24, 1774; not mentioned in his father's will; not living in 1796. J. K. Nutting says he settled at Salem, Mass. which is wholly wrong. William Nutting of Salem was another man. (Middlesex County Deeds, vol. 149, p.213) is important for his family. It gives all that were living March 25, 1796, when they conveyed to Levi Nutting all their rights in the estate of their grandfather William Blood. Levi was the only son who survived his father.

C4-10 BENJAMIN NUTTING (James, Ebenezer, John), born ———, perhaps 1730, and so older than brothers John and Ebenezer, but more probably born about 1740; died about May 1821; married Nov. 4, 1766, Sarah, daughter of Jonas and Lydia Varnum.

Benjamin Nutting lived in Pepperell; was yeoman, husbandman and farmer. His will, dated March 12, 1813, proved Oct. 16, 1821, mentions no children, but mentions Abigail Dickson, unmarried, Benjamin Nutting Fiske and Walter Fiske, now living in my family. These may be been grandchildren. Samuel Nutting and others are cited to appear at the probate of the will. Who Samuel was, I am not sure. May have been brother of Benjamin Nutting.

C4-11 EBENEZER NUTTING (James, Ebenezer, John), b. July 17, 1742 at Grafton, Mass.; died ————; married Jan. 31, 1765 Sybil Stickney (marriage recorded at Harvard, Mass.)

March 1766, Groton caution against Sybil Nutting the wife of Ebenezer Nutting who came last from Harvard allowed.

Gen. of Desc. of John Nutting Brainard

CHAPTER I

PART I

John Nutting of Groton, Mass. The Original Ancestor of Nuttings in America

By Homer W. Brainard

JOHN NUTTING, born about 1620-25 in England; died at Groton, Mass., March 13, 1676; married at Woburn, Mass., Aug. 28, 1650 Sarah Eggleston, daughter of Stephen and Jane Eggleston. The dates of her birth and death are not known.

There is said to be among the Winthrop papers a copyhold deed to "John Nutton (Nutting) a lifelong tenant on one moiety of the lands of Groton Manor," given at the time when John Winthrop—later the governor of Massachusetts—succeeded his father, Adam Winthrop, Esq. as lord of the manor of Groton, in Suffolk, England. The date of the deed is 1618. The grantee is called John Nutton, Senior. This implies a John Nutting, Jr., living in 1618, and of age. If not, the distinction Senior would not have been used. If living in 1618, the John Nutting of New England would have been a very young child. Hence his connection with the Nuttings of old Groton cannot be proved. It is said that the name of Nutting does not appear in the Parish Register of Groton.

In a letter dated June 20, 1623, John Winthrop, the later governor, writing to his son John who was a student at Trinity College, Dublin, says: "Commend me to my little cousins, and to my god-daughter Susannah Nutton." It does not appear whether Susannah was a wife or a daughter of a Nutting.

The earliest date that can be certainly assigned to John Nutting of New England is therefore the date of his marriage in 1650. He appears to have lived a few years at Woburn, but before June 29, 1656, he had removed to Chelmsford, settling perhaps in the western portions, now Westford, where some of his descendants have lived. On July 13, 1656, John Nutting and his wife were received into full communion with the Chelmsford Church, Rev. John Fiske, pastor. Three weeks later three of their children were baptized and in 1659 another child.

On Nov. 9, 1661, James Parker, John Nutting and James Fiske asked the Chelmsford church for leave to remove and for their prayers for a blessing on their undertaking. Thereupon the brethern objected, demanding their reasons for removal. Brother Parker answered that each of them had personal reasons, but in the main all agreed that it was because of several things pressing upon their spirits in reference to church administration, and added that if he could enjoy all ordinances and their administration according to rule, he for his part would not remove. Brother Nutting also offered his remote location as a reason for removal; having several small children, he and his wife were deprived of the ordinances of religion and he wished to dwell near the meetinghouse. The church could not agree upon any action. There had evidently been disagreement or controversy of which we are not informed. It was finally voted that, "if the brethern concerned shall in the meantime settle themselves in the proposed way, we shall leave the matter with God."

It is probable that these three men had already made preparations for their homes at Groton. They would not, having wives and small children, remove as winter was coming on, unless they had provided shelter for them. Then too, they must be on the ground in season for next year's crop. The exact date of their removal is not known, but by Sept. 21, 1663, John Nutting was established in a home near the meeting-house in Groton, for on that date the town voted that "the said John shall keep clean or cause it to be kept clean, and for his labors he is to have fourteen shillings." In June, 1663, John Nutting had expressed his disapproval of the town's vote to call Mr. Willard to be their minister. During this summer he and James Fiske were laboring to lay out the highway to Chelmsford, for which they were to have twenty shillings. In November, 1663, he was, with four others, chosen selectman, and was re-elected in 1667 and 1669. In 1668 he was chosen constable, which made him rate-maker and tax collector.

Dec. 15, 1669, he was one of a committee to see that Mr. Willard, the town minister, had his maintenance well and truly paid to him.

On Nov. 13, 1672, he received a bounty of ten shillings for a wolf's head. On March 7, 1672-3 the town sequestered for use as a common about the meeting-house some land that was bounded by John Nutting. This shows that he was still living on the lot "nigh unto the meeting house," as he had desired when about to remove from Chelmsford in 1661. On Dec. 11, 1675, he was elected with others a surveyor (inspector) of high ways, was on Dec. 10, 1673, a fence viewer. The facts give us some insight into John Nutting's life and character as a man and pioneer. His standing in the town was, if not the highest, at least worthy and respectable.

The town of Groton at that time comprised some 41,000 acres of land. James Parker, the wealthiest, had a fifty-acre right; John Nutting a seventeen-acre right. This does not mean that James Parker owned but fifty acres and John Nutting but seventeen. As there were about four hundred acre-rights in all, each acre-right was entitled to about fifty-four acres, pro rata, in the subsequent "divisions" or stock dividends in land. This would entitle John Nutting to about four hundred acres of land, or possibly more, as regard was had to the quality of the land as well as to actual acreage. Tradition affirms that he had a tract extending from Naumux Spring to the Nashua River, large tracts to the west of the river in what is now Pepperell, and land in the north end of Baddycook.

It is said that his house was a fortified garrison, to which the people might go in times of danger from the Indians. Groton was on the frontier at that time, and such danger was real. The house was perhaps built like a blockhouse, with projecting upper story, loop-holes in the walls for musketry, and a stockade about it. John Nutting would be obliged to defend the house in case of attack. It was this obligation that lead to his death. The Indian war known as King Philip's war, began in the early spring of 1676, after long preliminary warnings. Trouble began at Groton, March 2, 1676. On March 13 a force of four hundred Indians attacked Groton by stealth, as was their habit. Nutting's house and others were captured and John Nutting was shot to death in its defense. It is said that his head was severed and put upon a pole. The women and children escaped safely to Parker's house, not far away. Nutting's wife and children escaped with the others later to the safer settlements. The eldest son was married at this time and cared for his own. He and his brother James returned to Groton at the re-settlement. The younger children never returned to Groton. Mrs. Nutting probably went to Woburn, where her mother was living. Her mother, Mrs. Jane Cole, widow of ———— Eggleston of James Briton and of Isaac Cole, died at Woburn, March 10, 1687. Her sister Ruth, wife of Samuel Blodgett, may have lived at the same place.

John Nutting left no will. At a court held at Cambridge, April 1, 1684, administration was granted to John and James Nutting on the estate of John Nutting, late of Groton, deceased. On Dec. 4, 1716, James Nutting of Groton, yeoman, Ebenezer Nutting of Medford, practioner of physic, Jonathan Nutting of Cambridge, locksmith, John Stone of Groton and Sarah Stone, alias Nutting, his wife, and Jacob Taylor of Concord, husbandman, and Deborah Taylor, alias Nutting, his wife, children of John Nutting of Groton aforesaid, deceased and intestate, for £60 paid by our brother John Nutting of Groton, husbandman, conveyed to him all their interests in the estate of John Nutting lying in Groton (Middlesex County Deeds, Vol. 18, p. 290.) This deed is evidence for his legal heirs that were living Dec. 4, 1716.

Pages 77-80 "The surprisal of Groton was after this manner."

March 2, 1676

ON the 2nd the Indians came in the night and rifled eight or nine houses carrying away cattle and alarming the town."

March 9

"Indians ambushed two carts from garrisons to fetch hay attended by four men.

"Two escaped.

"Two were set upon by Indians. One was slain, stripped naked, his body mangled and dragged into the highway and laid on his back in a most shameful manner. The other taken captive, and who afterward escaped."

March 13

"Was the day the enemy came in full body 400.

* * * * * * * *

"These two Indians were espied and the alarm given whereupon the most of the men in the next garrison[1] and some also in the second, (which was about eight or nine poles distant), drew out and went to surprise those two Indians, till our men reached the brow of the hill. Then arose the ambush and discharged a volley upon them, which caused a disorderly retreat or rather rout in which one was slain[2] and three others wounded.

"Meantime another ambuscade had arisen and came upon the back side of the garrison,[3] now deserted of men, and pulled down the palisades. The soldiery in this rout retreated not to their own, but passed by to the next garrison, the women and children meanwhile exposed to hazard, but by the goodness of God made a safe escape to the other fortified house[4] without any harm, leaving their substance to the enemy, etc."

This from the first settlement to the present time has been a common name in Groton.

"John Nutting was an original proprietor and owned a seventeen acre right. His house lot was on the northerly side of James brook between the highway passing easterly of the Union meeting house on the east and Broadmeadow on the west. His house, which was one of the most ancient garrisons, probably stood near the brook, on the site perhaps of Liberty Hall or the Rev. D. Phelps' house and it is the same that the Indian commander, on the night after the town was burnt March 13, 1676 conversed from, (being the garrison he had taken possession of) with Capt. Parker in his garrison, which is known to have stood on or near the site of Dr. A. B. Bancroft's house. The late William Nutting, Esq., was his lineal decendant."

[1]Probably John Nutting's garrison. [3]Probably John Nutting's garrison.
[2]Probably it was John Nutting who was slain. [4]Probably James Parker's garrison.

GENEALOGY OF JOHN NUTTING OF NUTTINGVILLE
South Amherst, Mass., by Rev. John Keep Nutting—1908.
NUTTINGS IN AMERICA

JOHN NUTTING probably of Groton Manor England—Pages 40-62

The first official record of him in this country was that made by the Town Clerk of Woburn, Mass., August 28, 1650 recording his marriage to Sarah Eggleston.

Several children were born to them and they later moved to Chelmsford about 15 miles away where various entries are found in the Note Book of the Rev. John Fiske, Pastor of the Church, relating to the Founder and his family. Among others are the joining of the church of John and his wife and later the baptisms of several of their children.

The family later moved to Groton, Mass., where our ancestor became a proprietor and settler through the Massachusetts Bay Colony of the new Town, and according to "Dr. Green's Early Records of Groton, Mass." was elected one of its Selectmen in November, 1663, which office he held for several years. His home became one of the fortified Garrisons of the vicinity and he was later killed in the fight against the Indians in "The Burning of Groton" King Phillips War in the year 1676.

2nd Generation—Page 63.

There were four sons of the Founder who survived infancy, namely:—John 2, James, Ebenezer, and Johnathan and who became the heads of the four main branches of the Nutting Family in America.

EBENEZER, 3rd SON, BRANCH

He was born in Groton, Mass., 1666 and a boy of 10 when the town was burned. Lived with his mother at Concord and Woburn. Returned to Groton for a time but left before 1707. Settled at Cambridge. Studied medicine and became a skilled Physician and Surgeon. Represented his town in General Court and was highly esteemed. He shows four male children: Johnathan, Ebenezer, Josiah, John.

3rd Generation

EBENEZER (2) 2nd Son of Ebenezer 1—Page 68.

Settled at Cambridgeport, Mass. He shows 3 sons, Ebenezer, Benjamin, Jonathan.

4th Generation

EBENEZER (3) eldest son of Ebenezer (2)—Page 74.

A sailor. Thought to have served in the "Royal Navy." Lost at sea. Drowned on the Grand Banks. Left wife (Mary Russell) and two infant sons, one of whom became the head of numerous posterity.

5th Generation

JOHN, eldest son of Ebenezer (3) (Little John of Northampton)—Page 87.

A child of 4 when orphaned. His mother's friend, Mrs. Hunt, took him to Northampton, Mass., where she found him a home with the Lyman who lived near the toll-bridge. At the age of 17 he enlisted in the Revolutionary Army and saw service in guarding Old Fort Ticonderoga.

Grown to manhood he married Esther Smith and settled at South Amherst, his farm being on the old Bay Road. He married a second wife Catherine Smith of Whately. His descendants form one of the most numerous and interesting branches.

PART II

Ancestry of John Nutting of So. Amherst

By Homer W. Brainard

Hartford, Connecticut July 4, 1925.

Mr. Walter M. Nutting, Fairbault, Minnesota. Dear Sir:—

I have seen the blanks for information regarding the descendants of John and George Nutting which you sent to Mrs. George L. Henry of Amherst, Mass., as she sent them to me for aid in filling out, and I have added what information I had at hand. As you may know my wife is a descendant of George Nutting, her grandmother having been Juliana Nutting, daughter of Captain George Nutting of South Amherst, Mass. Born Sept. 25, 1813, married Moseley J. Kendell. A college classmate of mine, Wallace Nutting of Framingham, Mass., has been my close friend for years.

In view of these facts, I have been much interested in the Nutting Family Genealogy, and have spent much time and effort in tracing it out. Have had careful study of records made in the towns and counties of eastern Massachusetts where they originated. I have a Manuscript Genealogy of about 125 hand written pages including the first five generations and some later. There may be a Nutting Genealogy more carefully written than this of mine with everything verified from original records, but if so, I do not know it. This shall be at your disposal, if you desire it. At present it is out of my hands being copied by my cousin, but I expect it back by fall.

I have the book of Rev. John K. Nutting. The Rev. J. K. N. was doubtless a good Christian and an able minister but as a Genealogist he certainly did not attain the ideal. The book is about as exasperating in its arrangement and incompleteness as a book could possibly be. Farther, my investigations have shown some very serious errors in it. There is another Mr. Nutting interested in Genealogy and I think compiling a book. His name and address escape me for the moment, but I will try and get it for you.

I see you accept John K. Nutting's statement that John Nutting of Northampton and Amherst was a son of an Ebenezer Nutting. This cannot be true. My research shows that he was in all probability the son of John and Sarah Nutting of Charlestown, Mass., who was it is true descended from the Jonathans and Ebenezers of Cambridge, Mass. When my genealogy comes back to hand I will give you my exact reasons for so stating.

Meanwhile permit me to commend your purpose and to express the hope that you will be able to bring it to realization. Many years experience in genealogical work (I have published two large volumes and numerous smaller ones) have shown me that it is no small job to complete even a partial genealogy, and that it is writing real history and should be considered as such. With best wishes, Very truly yours, HOMER W. BRAINARD.

Note—Chas. H. Nutting of Boston is the only other Nutting I know of besides myself, who is interested in Nutting Genealogy and he is co-operating with me in this present undertaking.—W.M.N.

PART II

Genealogy of John Nutting of Ipsa, Scotland

By Henry W. Bentley

Hartford, Connecticut, July 4, 1911.

Mr. Walter M. Nutting, Fairbanks, Minnesota. Dear Sir:—

I have seen the blanks for information regarding the descendants of John and George Nutting which you sent us in Lake George. E. Henry of Andover, Mass., as we now think we saw his set in Ellery and, and I have added what information I had of hand. We may have by only it a descendant of George Nutting, by grandmother being Lena Julians Nutting, daughter of Captain George Nutting of South Andover, Mass. Born June 21, 1812, married Mehetby I. Kendall. A valley elements of mine, William Bentley of Framingham, Mass., has been on close friend for years. In view of this fact, I have been much interested in the Nutting Family Genealogy, and have spent much time and effort in tracing it out. There had careful study of records made in the towns and cities of Mass. and some Nutting Genealogy originated. I have a Manuscript Genealogy of about 121 hand written pages including the last generation and some later. There may be a Nutting Genealogy more carefully written than the of mine with everything omitted from original records, but if so I do not know it. This shall be at your disposal, if you desire it. It is a set of my hands being copied by my cousin, but I expect it back by Oct

I have the book of Rev. John C. Nutting. The Rev. J. K. M. was a good Clergyman and an able minister but as a Genealogist he cannot rank with my estate the ideal. The book is about as compiling in its information and incorporations as a book could possibly be. Perhaps my [illegible] have shown some very unnecessary in it. There is needed [illegible] Nutting Genealogy and I think compiling a book. The [illegible] and editors except me for the present, but I will try and get [illegible] for you

I am your cousin John K. Bentley's statement that John Nutting of Chelmsford and Andover was a son of an Ensign Nutting. The source [illegible] the records show that he was at probably the son of John [illegible] Nutting of Charlestown, Mass., who died in very advanced [illegible] Hartford, Connecticut, and Ellington, Conn. Where are [illegible] I will give you my exact figures for [illegible]

[illegible] Nutting [illegible] Mass. [illegible] Nutting [illegible] Mass. [illegible] Nutting [illegible] Mass. [

"Joseph Smith and Abigail Nutting of this town were joined in mar riage by the Rev. Mr. Thomas Prentice April 2, 1767."

"John Penny, Jr., and Mary Nutting were joined in marriage by th Revd. Mr. Hall Abbott May 16, 1768."

In 1775 he was living at Bow St., near Arrow St., occupying Lot 4 in the plan in James F. Hunnewell's Century of a Township, p. 129.

His losses from the burning of Charlestown by the British on June 1 1775, are described as "half a dwelling, kitchen at back, valued at £10 and £8 in personal estate." He is called baker and laborer, and a seafarin man.

In 1790 the census shows the family of John Nutting to be compos of himself and wife and another female, perhaps his wife's sister, Lau Russell, as census of 1789 says.

The record of the death of his wife is very confused. Charlestow records exist only in a transcript or copy, originals having been lost.
reads: "John Nutting the deaf and dumb man's wife Sarah died of th dropsy Sept. 18, 1795, aged 39." The date of Sarah's death is evident wrong, it probably being before Sept., 1795, as we have the date of h second wife's death, Mary (probably RUSSELL) Nutting that same mon and year.

There exists in the Phipps Street Cemetery in Charlestown a grav stone with the following marking:—

"IN MEMORY OF MRS. MARY NUTTING
WIFE OF MR. JOHN NUTTING WHO DIED
SEPT. 17, 1795, AGE 47 YEARS."

There exists the following deed: "John Nutting of Charlestown, labore in consideration of my friendship and affection for Mary Bird of Charl town, single woman, deeds to her the income of his estate, real and person during her lifetime; if income is insufficient, she has liberty to sell th property by the advice of the selectmen." Sept. 28, 1797. (Middlesex Coun Deeds, vol. 126, p. 283).

John Nutting and Polly Bird, both of Charlestown, were joined marriage Sept. 28, 1797, by Rev. Jedediah Morse, pastor of the Fi Congregational Church.

According to the Charlestown records, this John Nutting continued live there for some 28 years in rather destitute circumstances, to the time his death at age 84 years.

CHILDREN, FIFTH GENERATION

Probably by First Wife Sarah ————.

*D5-8 i John, b. about 1762 or 3; probably the JOHN NUTTING South Amherst.

D5-9 ii Ebenezer, b. (date not known); d. aged 2 years.

By Third Wife, Mary (Bird) Nutting

i Caroline, bapt. July 20, 1800 at Charlestown.

*Note by W. M. N.—According to the above, JOHN NUTTING (B5-8)
So. Amherst would have to be the son of John Nutting (B4-8) f merly of Watertown, Mass. by his first wife SARAH ————. Fu thermore, the natural inference would be that (JOHN of So. Amherst* was born at Watertown—seeing that his accredited father was bapt. there in 1741 and came from there to Charlestown in 1766. It is significant furthermore, that JOHN, "a child of 4 years was brought to Northampton by friends of his mother," about this time; indicating that she might have died and the home was being broken up.

Mr. Brainard, however, in attaching John (5) of So. Amherst to John and Sarah Nutting, formerly of Watertown, is making this as a CONJECTURE or ASSUMPTION rather than having his theory substantiated by any postitve records as to the parentage, dates and places of birth and baptism of our Little JOHN.

STATEMENT BY GENEALOGIST (Nutting Genealogy, 1927)

I have a good record of many Nuttings of the fifth generation. I have especially noted the John Nuttings of the fifth generation. All without exception were born too late to be the John Nutting of Amherst, or else are known to have lived elsewhere than in Amherst. I believe this record is complete and accurate enough, so that we can locate John Nutting of Amherst as the son of the John Nutting of Charlestown, the deaf mute. Although there is no record of his birth, it is the most in accord with the traditions of the origin of John of Amherst as given by Rev. J. K. Nutting on pages 74 and 89. Surely he is the only John who had a mother—really stepmother—named Mary Russell. I have shown on page 35 that the John of Amherst could not have been the son of Ebenezer Ebenezer, Ebenezer, John, as stated by J. K. Nutting on page 74. John of Amherst did not come from the Marblehead line. This origin of John of Amherst may not be as agreeable to the descendants of John of Amherst as some other origin might be, but the fact that he was taken to Northampton at the age of four indicates very special circumstances in the affairs of his parents. They were either one or both dead, or in circumstances which compelled them to give up their child. .Rev. J. K. Nutting does not seem to have been aware of the condition of the descendants of the two younger sons of John Nutting the founder of the family. The descendants of John Nutting, the oldest son of the founder, were either of Groton or from there. All were farmers to a man, with possibly one exception. The descendants of the two younger sons of the founder were very poorly known to J. K. Nutting. He simply had little or no information concerning them. They were mostly town dwellers, artisans or seamen. J. K. Nutting, being descended from John Nutting, eldest son of the founder, and relying upon the MS. genealogy, said to have proceeded from John Nutting the centenarian, knew most of the descendants of the eldest or northern branch and little of the others. I regard it as one of the merits of my investigation that I have brought to light the descendants of the two younger sons, Ebenezer and Jonathan, and that the list is complete to the end of the fourth generation. I would add that I have record authority for every statement that I have made in this account, and have used conjecture only in those cases in which I have so stated, or where I have used interrogation mark (?) in connection.

WILLIAM ILSLEY, Newbury, was of Newbury, Wilts, came in the Confidence, 1638, aged 26, a shoemaker, with wife Barbara, 20, and servant, Philip Davis, 12; had John, born 1641; Mary; Elisha; William, 1648; Joseph, 1649; Isaac, 1652; and Sarah, 1655; and he died 1681; aged 73, says Coffin.

INCE:—Jonathan Ince, Hartford, an original propr. removed to Boston before 1640, there died, and his lot at H. was granted to John Cullick. He was prob. the

[The foregoing wills and register abstracts show the following pedigree of Stephen Iggleden of Biddenden, co. Kent, whose family came to New England.]

1. Richard Iggleden of Bindenden left a widow Alice, testatrix of 1475. Their youngest son,
2. John Iggleden of Biddenden, the testator of 1511, left a wife Alice. Their sons were:
3. Richard Iggleden of Biddenden, the testator of 1518, and John Iggleden, whose will has not been found. The latter was evidently father of
4. William Iggleden of Biddenden, born about 1510, the testator of 1557. His youngest child by his second wife, Lettice Stacy, was
5. Stephen Iggleden of Biddenden, bapt. 19 Oct. 1552, the testator of 1605. He had three wives, Joane, Mary, and Dionys. His third child,
6. Stephen Iggleden of Biddenden and Tenterden, baptized 16 Apr. 1582, was the testator of 1624. He married at Tenterden 13 Jan. 1606–7, Sarah Haffenden.

   Children:

   i. Stephen, bapt. at Biddenden, 17 Jan. 1607–8.
   ii. Sarah, bapt. at Biddenden, 22 Oct. 1609; probably m. at Tenterden, 29 Jan. 1628–9, John Lucas.
   iii. John, bapt. at Biddenden, 25 Aug. 1611. A John Eggleton or Eggleden was early of Fairfield, Conn. (where in 1659 settled Joseph Patchen, who m. in 1642, Elizabeth, widow of Stephen Iggleden, No. 7). This John Eggleden d. at Fairfield in 1659, leaving a son John, who d. young, and a widow Peaceable, who m. (2) Daniel Silliman.
   iv. Thomas, bapt. at Biddenden 26 Dec. 1613; living in 1624.

   vi. Susan, bapt. at Tenterden 21 June 1618; probably m. at Tenterden, 20 Sept. 1634, Thomas Haffenden.

From a lady in Vermont

   vii. Elizabeth, bapt. at Biddenden 21 Jan. 1620–1; evidently came to New England with the widow of her brother Stephen Iggleden (No. 7). The records of Roxbury, Mass., show the marriage of Philip Meadows and Elizabeth Ingulden, Apr. 1641. Child: Hannah, b. at Roxbury 1 Feb. 1642–3. Savage and other authorities erroneously state that Elizabeth Iggleden, wife of Philip Meadows, was daughter of Stephen Iggleden (No. 7).
   viii. Mary, bapt. at Biddenden 29 June 1623.

7. Stephen Iggleden, baptized at Biddenden 17 Jan. 1607–8, died about 1638. He married there, 30 Nov. 1628, Elizabeth Bennett. She came with her children to New England in the summer of 1638 in the Castle, which brought a company from Tenterden and vicinity, among them Peter Branch of Halden, co. Kent (which lies between Tenterden and Biddenden), who died on the voyage and by his will, dated 16 June 1638 and probated at Boston, left a reversionary bequest to "widowe Igleden the late wife of Stephen Igleden or to his children or to her children she had by him." She settled at Roxbury, Mass., where as "Widdow Iggulden" she appears in a list of proprietors in 1639. Three years later her marriage appears in Roxbury: "Joseph Patching and Elizabeth Ingulden, Apr. 10," 1642. On 20 Oct. 1646 "Egleden, daughter in law to Joseph Patchen she was about 10 y. old, she dyed of a paine first in her head, then in her back" (Roxbury Church Records). "Goodwife Patchin a poor old woman" joined the Roxbury Church 14 Mar. 1649–50, and her two sons Joseph and John Patchen were baptized. Joseph Patchen removed in 1651 to Fairfield, Conn.

   Children baptized at Biddenden:

   i. Elizabeth, bapt. 31 Jan. 1629–30; bur. 25 July 1630.
   ii. Ruth, bapt. 8 Nov. 1631.
   iii. Elizabeth, bapt. 11 May 1634.
   iv. Hannah, bapt. 9 Oct. 1636; d. at Roxbury, Mass., 20 Oct. 1646, aged 10 years.

[There was a Richard Iggleden, mariner, of Boston, who married Ann Prince, 19 July 1660, and administration on whose estate was given to Oliver Purchase 1 May 1667. Savage and other authorities state that he was son of Stephen Iggleden, but give no evidence for the assertion.

At Woburn, Mass., John Nutting married, 28 Aug. 1650, Sarah Eggleton, and Samuel Blodgett married, 13 Dec. 1655, Ruth Eggleton. Savage and others have suggested these two were also daughters of Stephen Iggleden (No. 7), but, as Mr. Arthur G. Loring has pointed out, in 1674 Nutting and Blodgett agreed to support their mother-in-law Jane, widow of Isaac Cole. She was born about 1600, was formerly wife of James Britton, and evidently still earlier the wife of one Eggleton, by whom she had Sarah and Ruth. (See Register, vol. 59, p. 417.)]

[In the July number will appear interesting details of the ancestry of Moses Paine of Braintree, Nathaniel Tilden of Scituate, Samuel Hinckley of Barnstable, Jonas Austin of Taunton, Richard Sealis of Scituate, and other early settlers of New England from Tenterden, co. Kent.]

SECTION I

JOHN NUTTING, The Founder

Here begins the Genealogical Research by Homer W. Brainard

JOHN NUTTING, born about 1620-25 in England; died at Groton, Mass., March 13, 1676; married at Woburn, Mass., Aug. 28, 1650 Sarah Eggleston, daughter of Stephen and Jane Eggleston. The dates of her birth and death are not known.

There is said to be among the Winthrop papers a copyhold deed to "John Nutton (Nutting) a lifelong tenant of one moiety of the lands of Groton Manor," given at the time when John Winthrop,—later the governor of Massachusetts,—succeeded his father, Adam Winthrop, Esq. as lord of the manor of Groton, in Suffolk, England. The date of the deed is 1618. The grantee is called John Nutton, Senior. This implies a John Nutting, Jr., living in 1618, and of age. If not, the distinction Senior would not have been used. If living in 1618, the John Nutting of New England would have been a very young child. Hence his connection with the Nuttings of old Groton cannot be proved. It is said that the name of Nutting does not appear in the Parish Register of Groton.

In a letter dated June 20, 1623, John Winthrop, the later governor, writing to his son John who was a student at Trinity College, Dublin, says: "Commend me to my little cousins, and to my god-daughter Susannah Nutton." It does not appear whether Susannah was a wife or a daughter of a Nutting.

The earliest date that can be certainly assigned to John Nutting of New England is therefore the date of his marriage in 1650. He appears to have lived a few years at Woburn, but before June 29, 1656, he had removed to Chelmsford, settling perhaps in the western portion, now Westford, where some of his descendants have lived. On July 13, 1656, John Nutting and his wife were received into full communion with the Chelmsford Church, Rev. John Fiske, pastor. Three weeks later three of their children were baptized and in 1659 another child.

On Nov. 9, 1661, James Parker, John Nutting and James Fiske asked the Chelmsford church for leave to remove and for their prayers for a blessing on their undertaking. Thereupon the brethern objected, demanding their reasons for removal. Brother Parker answered that each of them had personal reasons, but in the main all agreed that it was because of several things pressing upon their spirits in reference to church administration, and added that if he could enjoy all ordinances and their administration according to rule, he for his part would not remove. Brother Nutting also offered his remote location as a reason for removal; having several small children, he and his wife were deprived of the ordinances of religion and he wished to dwell near the meetinghouse. The church could not agree upon any action. There had evidently been disagreement or controversy of which we are not informed. It was finally voted that, "if the brethern concerned shall in the meantime settle themselves in the proposed way, we shall leave the matter with God."

It is probable that these three men had already made preparations for their homes at Groton. They would not, having wives and small children, remove as winter was coming on, unless they had provided shelter for them. Then too, they must be on the ground in season for the next year's crop. The exact date of their removal is not known, but by Sept. 21, 1663, John Nutting was established in a home near the meeting-house in Groton, for on that date the town voted that "the said John shall keep clean or cause it to be kept clean, and for his labors he is to have fourteen shilling." In June, 1663, John Nutting had expressed his disapproval of the town's vote to call Mr. Willard to be their minister. During this summer he and James Fiske were laboring to lay out the highway to Chelmsford, for which they were to have twenty shillings. In November, 1663, he was with four others chosen selectman, and was re-elected in 1667 and 1669. In 1668 he was chosen constable, which made him rate-maker and tax collector.

Dec. 15, 1669, he was one of a committee to see that Mr. Willard, the town minister, had his maintenance well and truly paid to him.

On Nov. 13, 1672, he received a bounty of ten shillings for a wolf's head. On March 7, 1672-3 the town sequestered for use as a common about the meeting-house some land that was bounded by John Nutting. This shows that he was still living on the lot "nigh unto the meeting-house," as he had desired when about to remove from Chelmsford in 1661. On Dec. 11, 1675, he was elected with others a surveyor (inspector) of highways, and on Dec. 10, 1673, a fence viewer. These facts give us some insight into John Nutting's life and character as a man and pioneer. His standing in the town was, if not the highest, at least worthy and respectable.

The town of Groton at that time comprised some 41,000 acres of land. James Parker, the wealthiest, had a fifty-acre right; John Nutting a seventeen-acre right. This does not mean that James Parker owned but fifty acres and John Nutting but seventeen. As there were about four hundred acre-rights in all, each acre-right was entitled to about fifty-four acres, pro rata, in the subsequent "divisions" or stock dividends in land. This would entitle John Nutting to about four hundred acres of land, or possibly more, as regard was had to the quality of the land as well as to actual acreage. Tradition affirms that he had a tract extending from Naumux spring to the Nashua River, large tracts to the west of the river in what is now Pepperell, and land in the north end of Baddycook.

It is said that his house was a fortified garrison, to which the people might go in times of danger from the Indians. Groton was on the frontier at that time, and such danger was real. The house was perhaps built like a block-house, with projecting upper story, loop-holes in the walls for musketry, and a stockade about it. John Nutting would be obliged to defend the house in case of attack. It was this obligation that lead to his death. The Indian war known as King Philip's war, began in the early spring of 1676, after long preliminary warnings. Trouble began at Groton, March 2, 1676. On March 13 a force of four hundred Indians attacked Groton by stealth, as was their habit. Nutting's house and others were captured and John Nutting was shot to death in its defense. It is said that his head was severed and put upon a pole. The women and children escaped safely to Parker's house, not far away. Nutting's wife and children escaped with the others later to the safer settlements. The eldest son was married at this time and cared for his own. He and his brother James returned to Groton at the re-settlement. The younger children never returned to Groton. Mrs. Nutting probably went to Woburn, where her mother was living. Her mother, Mrs. Jane Cole, widow of ———— Eggleston, of James Briton and of Isaac Cole, died at Woburn, March 10, 1687. Her sister Ruth, wife of Samuel Blodgett, may have lived at the same place.

John Nutting left no will. At a court held at Cambridge, April 1, 1684, administration was granted to John and James Nutting on the estate of John Nutting, late of Groton, deceased. On Dec. 4, 1716, James Nutting of Groton, yeoman, Ebenezer Nutting of Medford, "practioner of physic," Jonathan Nutting of Cambridge, locksmith, John Stone of Groton and Sarah Stone, alias Nutting, his wife, and Jacob Taylor of Concord, husbandman, and Deborah Taylor, alias Nutting, his wife, children of John Nutting of Groton aforesaid, deceased and intestate, for £60 paid by our brother John Nutting of Groton, husbandman, conveyed to him all their interests in the estate of John Nutting lying in Groton. (Middlesex County Deeds, Vol. 18, p.290.)

This deed is evidence for his legal heirs that were living Dec. 4, 1716.

Dear Helen,

Received your information yesterday - these lines go together - but only in the beginning.

I have this material from Mark Knox of Calif - that sure throws a different light on wife of Stephen Eggleston. How are we going to prove this?

I can have these copied photocopied if you want them. Will have to wait until I make another trip to Shaw Springs.

I have ordered a Kansas History from the Library - if it ever get here I shall check on your David J. Hunt.

Topeka doesn't have death records before 1911 - suppose it would have to come from Town Clerk from town he died in.

Keep in touch! Am anxious for your opinion on Elizabeth Bennett -

Sincerely,
Doris Cambridge

Dear Helen,

Thank you for the charts.

I wrote about the Eggleston Book and they said they could not find any connection in the book with Glen's lineage, so guess that's out.

Would it be possible for you to photo-copy those pages from the books you listed the Egglestons in? Would also need the title page of each book - I would be glad to pay for the postage + photocopies + large envelope as they wouldn't have to be folded + first Class mail -

I have a friend going to Topeka next week and she will check on the town Argentine, Kan it isn't listed on mine anymore - she will find out what Co. it was in + she if there is a County Hist for that Co. if so I will try and borrow the book and check for you on the David J Hunt. What is your connection to him?

I had a letter from a man in Calif that has the Eggleston family and he has Stephen Eggleston m. to Elizabeth Bennett. and she m 2nd Joseph Patcham. I have ask him if he could photocopy the material, and if I get it I will send you copies, if you want them?

I'm interested to see your Blood family - Will send mine to you if you want it.

There is suppose to be a "Howe Genealogies" printed in NEHGR. Would that be in your library? Maybe we can find our Howe's listed there?

Let me hear from you.

Sincerely, Doris Cambridge

Dear Helen,

Thank you so much for writing - this Nutting - Eggleston is a large problem - they are also my husband's line.

Enclosed is Glen's line -

I see in the Sept-Oct 1979 issue of Genealogical Helper they have a Eggleston Family book out - have you seen it? If I knew it had Glen line in it I would buy it - as for I have no proof on the Nutting - Eggleston line -

If you have more Nutting information than I have listed I would gladly pay your postage + photocopying if you would photocopy what I don't have.

I see where you both are so young - wish I had started genealogy when I was young - it gets harder as you get older!

I have a Blood line - wonder if we connect there?

Lydia + John Bates also lived in Summit Co. Ohio - they must have been close - then they moved to Muscatine, Iowa - then Swan, Iowa -

Keep in touch!

Sincerely
Doris Cambridge

Dear Mrs. Read:

I am a family (amateur) genealogist with a special interest in the NUTTING family - to the extent that I "collect" any/all NUTTING data. Your name was provided to me by HAZEL B. JESSEN (a cousin of yours?) and she sent interesting data from the Groton, MA area involving NUTTINGS, BLOODS, LAWRENCE, etc.

I have a query regarding the ancestors of JOHN NUTTING who was b. 1731 and m. MARTHA BLOOD. I have read HOMER BRAINARD'S (1927) NUTTING genealogy and he suggests JOHN[4] (b ~1936), JAMES[3], EBENEZER[2], JOHN[1] but then gets "fuzzy" about the several JAMES. I wonder if you have been able to separate out the father and mother of JOHN[4] (b. 1731) in greater detail.

My own line goes LEIGHTON[11], CLARENCE[10], LESTER[9], HORATIO[8], JESSE[7], ABEL[6], JOSIAH[5], JOSIAH[4], JOHN[3], JOHN[2], JOHN[1] with Maine and Massachusetts as the principal states involved. Any help would be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Leighton G. Nutting b. 1919

Max Knox from Calif sent me this information on wife of Stephen Eggleston
Do you have this information? I could get it photocopied for you.

Nutting John, the common ancr. of dif. fam. in Groton. was an org. prop. of the town & owned 1 ac. right. His land lay on nor. side of James Brook & his house, which was one of the earliest garrisons, stood near the present site of Liberty Hall. It was from this garrison house that the Indian chief, on the night of March 13, 1676, "did very familiarly in appearance, call out to Capt. Parker that was lodged in another Garrison house," situated near where Captain Asa S. Lawrence now lives.

John Nutting married, August 28, 1650, Sarah Eggleton [?], at Woburn, where a son was born, who may have been John, mentioned below, and probably other children. A daughter, Mary, was born January 16, 1656, at Chelmsford, at which place John, James, and Mary were baptized August 3, 1656; also Sarah, born January 7, 1660, and died soon afterward.

He was one of the petitioners for the town of Chelmsford, and he removed probably from that town to Groton, where three of his children were born, — Sarah, May 29, 1663; Ebenezer, October 23, 1666; and Jonathan, October 17, 1668.

Parish. John Parish was an original proprietor of the town, and owned a five-acre right. He was one of a committee with John Page and Ensign Lawrence, chosen December 23, 1683, to prove the proprietors' title to their land. In the year 1693, he represented the town in the General Court. Thomas Parish, a son of Thomas Parish, of Cambridge, and a graduate of Harvard College in the class of 1650, was living in Groton at an early

NUTTING.

John[1] Nutting, d. Mar. 13, 1676; m. Aug. 28, 1650, Sarah, dau. of Stephen Eggleton. He came from County Kent, England, to America a little earlier than 1650, and settled at Woburn, Mass., where he married. He removed to that part of Chelmsford which is now Westford, and thence, about 1661, to Groton, where his house was one of the garrison houses. He was the first one killed by the Indians in their destructive attack upon the town.

John[2] (John[1]), b. Woburn, Mass., 1651; d. 1717 or later; m. (1) 1674, Mary ——; (2) Mrs. Maria Parker. He returned to Groton after the Indians' attack, and there passed his life. His children were of the first marriage.

Ebenezer[2] (John[1]), b. Groton, Mass., 1666. He removed from his native town before 1707 and settled in Cambridge, Mass., where he was known as the "learned blacksmith." Later he became a doctor. He represented the town in the General Court.

Daniel[3] (John[2], John[1]), b. about 1680.

John[3] (Ebenezer[2], John[1]), m. (int. Westford, Mass., Mar. 23, 1754,) Hannah, dau. of John and Anna (Chamberlain) Read [b. Feb. 15, 1723; d. Dec. 21, 1814].

Thomas[4] (John[3], Ebenezer[2], John[1]), b. Westford, Dec. 10, 1758; d. Plymouth, Dec. 28, 1813; m. (int. Westford, Aug. 31, 1781,) Sybil, dau. of Jona and Hannah (Bulkeley) Prescott [d. Oct. 29, 1831]. He lived many years in Westford, where his children were born, but in 1812 he removed to Plymouth, N. H., where he was a farmer and tanner. He served in the Revolution, enlisting at least three times.

Ezekiel[5] (Ezekiel[4], Daniel[3], John[2], John[1]), b. 1751.+

1. Jonas[5] (Thomas[4], John[3], Ebenezer[2], John[1]), b. Oct. 15, 1783; d. Apr. 23, 1842; m. Sept. 7, 1805, Mary Spaulding (20). He lived in Ashburnham, Mass., on the farm previously owned by his father-in-law, but so near the New Ipswich line that his social relations, including those of school and church, were with New Ipswich, and he is here presented as though he were legally resident in the town. Children:

3. i. Jonas, b. May 11, 1806.+
4. ii. Sally, b. Sept. 20, 1808; d. May 17, 1890; m. Apr. 2, 1835, Ezekiel Nutting (2).

9. i. Charles P., b. June 13, 1836.+
10. ii. George Henry, b. about 1837; d. July 4, 1864. He enlisted in the 13th New Hampshire Regiment, and died at Washington, D. C., from a wound received at Cold Harbor, Va.

12. iv. James Francis, b. about Feb., 1846; d. Jan. 15, 1862. He enlisted in the 6th New Hampshire Regiment, and died of disease at Annapolis, Md., while in service.

3. Jonas[6] (Jonas[5], Thomas[4], John[3], Ebenezer[2], John[1]), b. May 11, 1806; d. June 20, 1873; m. (1) Aug. 29, 1828, Lucy Sylvester (5); (2) 1864, Mrs. Sophia Hayden [d. Apr. 28, 1881]. He remained in Ashburnham until 1837, when he removed to Smith Village and after the death of Isaac Appleton bought his property at the northern end of the village and there made his home until 1869. The Appleton house, however, after a few years he removed several rods down the hill to its present position, and replaced it with the larger and more modern house now occupying the place. He was a farmer, and also did a very considerable business for those days in the manufacture of wooden chairs in connection with the sawmill and gristmill also dependent upon the waterpower below the bridge. The home of his later years was in the Center Village, where he bought the house opposite the Barrett mansion, long occupied by Moody Adams. At the outbreak of the Civil War he became active in the enlistment of soldiers for the New Ipswich and Rindge company in the 6th New Hampshire Regiment. He had previously been a captain in the militia, and he was commissioned lieutenant in this company and, despite his age, did active service for some months. Children:

He marched with the army to New York, but how long he continued in the service is not precisely known. After the war closed, he settled as a farmer on his paternal estate. Such was the confidence placed in him by his fellow townsmen, for his integrity and abilities, that he was constantly in offices of trust, of a civil and municipal nature. He was a representative of the town in the General Court nine years. Died July 25, 1820.

Nutting.

This, from the first settlement, to the present time, has been a common name in Groton.

John Nutting was an original proprietor, and owned a seventeen acre right. His house lot was on the northerly side of James's brook, between the highway passing easterly of the Union meeting-house on the east, and Broadmeadow on the west. His house, which was one of the most ancient garrisons, probably stood near the brook, on the site perhaps of Liberty Hall, or the Rev. D. Phelps's house, and it is the same that the Indian commander on the night after the town was burnt, March 13, 1676, conversed from, (being the garrison he had taken possession of,) with Capt. Parker in his garrison, which is known to have stood on or near the site of Dr. A. B. Bancroft's house. The late William Nutting, Esq., was his lineal descendant.

Parish.

John Parish was an original proprietor of Groton, and owned a five acre right. His house lot was on the highway leading to Cold Spring. The name appears only in the very early records of Groton.

Farmer says, John Paris, probably the same person, was representative of Groton, first on record, in 1689. He was one of the selectmen a few years.
